

Atheism Narratives Personal spiritual lives Common Language Personal Ethics
 Philosophy Belief Systems Optimism Collective Agnostic Global Ethics
Religion Modern Life Buddhism Mysticism The Arts Reflective Music Sharing
Literature Exchange of views Science Redemption Therapy Share experience
Psychology Evolution Search for meaning Dialogue Religious Culture Experimental Bahá'í Secular Round Table Discussion Law Ritual Humanism Christian Rich Heritage

IMAGINING FUTURES for a NEW HUMANISM

THE JAMES JOYCE CENTRE, DUBLIN, IRELAND
 12th – 15th MAY 2024

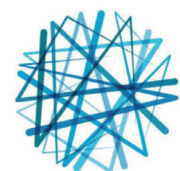

Can we try to make the world a better place? For many, belief systems do not help. Our point of departure explores a New Inclusive Humanism open to what is good (and bad) in being human. Includes the rich heritage of literature; the sciences/ humanities; ethics; visual arts; ritual; community; the mystics; and various religions. The challenge is how?

WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN THIS EXPLORATION.

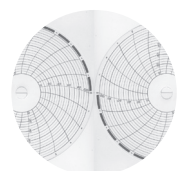

FURTHER INFORMATION:

www.NewHumanism24.com

CONTRIBUTORS:	Theresa Caherty (IE)	Darina Gallagher (IE)
Michael Harding (IE)	Mark Patrick Hederman (IE)	Harry Hudspith (ES)
Janie Lazar (IE)	Jim Malone (IE)	Philip McDonagh (IE)
Gaston Meskens (BE)	Louise Nelstrop (UK)	Camillus Power (IE)
Ehsan Samei (US)	Noirin Sheahan (UK)	Friedo Zolzer (CZ) et al.

Robert Boyle
Foundation

new.humanism